

Bible Conference

March 18–23, 2007

Bob Jones University

As we look into God's Word several times a day during our annual Bible Conference, our prayer is that we will grow in the grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Please join us for this highlight week of the year. We will have faithful preachers, edifying music, great fellowship and the special privilege of delving deep into the Word of God over the course of these days. We hope to see you here!

Sincerely yours,

Stephen Jones

Things to do while at BJU

The days surrounding Bible Conference are packed with things to do and see while you're visiting BJU.

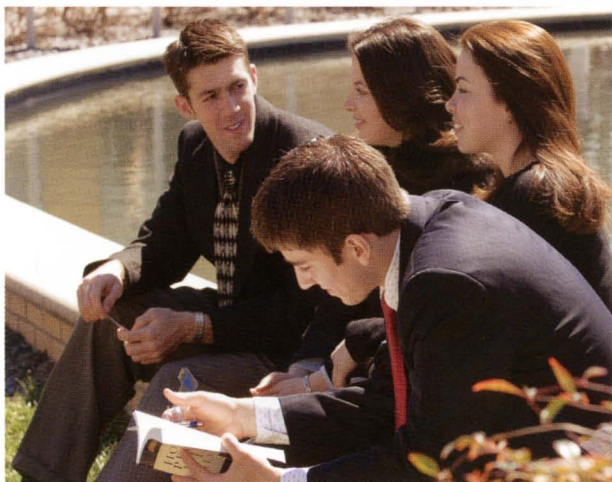

Events

Rigoletto

March 13, 15, 17—The BJU Opera Association presents one of Verdi's greatest operas, a music drama in which love and nobility become the victims of a father's ill-fated revenge. The performance will be conducted by Dr. Dwight Gustafson and directed by Miss Erin Naler and Dr. Darren Lawson. For ticket information, call (864)242-5100, ext. 5750.

Opportunity Days—March 15–16

Experience college for yourself! Fun and informative activities give teens a fast-paced, close-up encounter with university life. Request a brochure.

Parents Day

March 21—On Wednesday, the University honors the parents of current BJU and BJA students. Campus Store discounts are available to all parents, and meals in the dining common are “on the house” for parents accompanied by their children who are residence hall students. Parents are also welcome to visit their children’s residence hall rooms.

Pastors and Christian Workers Luncheon

March 21—The University invites all full-time pastors, youth pastors, evangelists, missionaries and their wives to be our guests at a luncheon Wednesday at noon in the Red Room of the dining common. Since space is limited, tickets are required and may be picked up at the Information Desk in the Administration Building from 8 a.m. on Monday until noon on Wednesday.

Alumni Day

March 22—On Thursday, BJU alumni are especially honored. Every alumnus will receive a memento of the day at the alumni office. Members of the Alumni Association will also receive added discounts at the Campus Store, free use of the fitness centers and a free meal in the dining common (present your membership card at the Alumni Office to receive your free meal ticket). Museum & Gallery admission is also free to alumni who present their membership cards. The annual Alumni Association meeting and reception will be held immediately after the evening service (location to be announced).

Heritage Society Luncheon

March 23—The annual Heritage Society Luncheon will be held in the Red Room of the dining common at noon on Friday. The Heritage Society honors those who have provided for BJU or one of the tax-exempt organizations friendly to BJU in their estate plans. If you would like information on becoming a member of the Heritage Society, please contact the Office of Advancement at ext. 1776.

Campus Attractions

The following attractions are available at various times during Bible Conference week. See the individual entry or the schedule for specific times, and take in as many as possible while you're here.

Museum & Gallery at Bob Jones University

Visit our world-class art collection to see art and artifacts dating from Bible times through the 19th century. Thirty galleries feature over 400 paintings of European sacred art by the Old Masters. M&G is open Tuesday through Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m., and a modest admission fee is charged. This season the following activities are offered:

- ArtSpeak Demystified

Enter an art museum and questions abound. Where did the art come from? How was it made? Who owned it? Is it original? Visit ArtSpeak Demystified and you'll find a relevant, understandable and intriguing exploration of the art facts everyone wants to know. Look at the backs of paintings and discover their travel history. Learn about how specific works journeyed from the artist's studio to M&G's galleries. Take a tour that unravels the process involved in creating different types of art media.

Fee: Free with general admission.

- Easter Scavenger Hunt

Children 6 and older are invited to participate in an Easter-themed scavenger hunt. This exciting activity takes 30–45 minutes and is designed to captivate children's interest and expose them to Old Master paintings in a friendly manner.

Fee: Free with general admission.

- Art and Rhetoric: A Look at 19th-Century Paintings and Frames

March 22 at 3 p.m., April 6 at 2:30 p.m. and April 7 at 2:30 and 4:30 p.m.

Nineteenth-century artists considered the frame an integral part of a religious painting's composition—an elegant masterwork on par with the canvas itself. Join Dr. Karen Rowe, professor of English at Bob Jones University, for an insightful lecture about specific works from Living Gallery 2007 and the significance of nineteenth-century frames.

Fee: Free with general admission.

Mack Library

Open M, Tu, W, F, 3–5 p.m.; Thurs., 1–5 p.m.

- Jerusalem Chamber—a reproduction of the room in London's Westminster Abbey where parts of the King James Version of the Bible were translated. Serves as a display area for BJU's collection of rare Bibles.
- Archives Room—a fascinating array of materials dealing with the history of Bob Jones University.
- Earle W. Sargent Boardroom—This elaborate room features hand-carved pilasters, Tiffany stained glass windows and chandeliers from the Astor Hotel in New York.

Images of Light

Don't miss Unusual Films' all-digital, wide-screen production—a high-tech look at the entire spectrum of campus life in a colorful, action-packed, 30-minute presentation in the Grace Levinson Chapel. No tickets are necessary. Doors will open 15 minutes before starting time, and seating will be on a first-come, first-served basis. See schedule for times.

Seminary and Evangelism Center

The Bob Jones Jr. Memorial Seminary and Evangelism Center is a world-class center for training seminary students. The beautiful rotunda contains multimedia displays, memorabilia, and a mural and sculptures dealing with evangelism, preacher training and missions.

University Displays

Be sure to visit with our representatives and counselors by the displays in the lobby of the Student Center. They are waiting to answer your questions about Bob Jones University.

Please Note

No photographic or recording equipment is permitted in any auditorium or assembly building. Recordings of certain messages, as approved by the speakers, may be obtained through the Campus Store.

Children 6 years of age and older (when accompanied by an adult) are welcome in the Museum & Gallery and in any service or program.

Modest apparel is required. Those whose attire is not in keeping with university standards will be denied admission.
